

Dear Parent

The School has always been concerned with ensuring adequate security and safety of the students.

While all requisite systems are in place we are considering additional vigilance in different ways using not only personnel but also technology.

We will keep you updated in this regard and will always look forward to your support and cooperation in our efforts.

Branch Head

Modern Early Years

Vasundhara, Gzb